

Carry On – words and music Jack O'Hagan ©1931

- Vocal arrangement Jeannie Marsh; Band arrangement James Hodson.
- Permission has been granted for use of this song on Elwood Singing Walking Trail.
- This song also has a verse, but only the chorus is heard on Elwood Singing Walking Trail.

When you're blue just carry on,
Troubles are only bubbles that fade away.
Smile and simply carry on,
Where there's a smile no sorrow can ever stay.
Even in the darkest hours,
Remember that night is followed by the dawn.
Whenever you feel blue
Here's all you've got to do:
Carry on, carry on, carry on!

[Instrumental Break]

Even in the darkest hours,
Remember that night is followed by the dawn.
Whenever you feel blue
Here's all you've got to do:
Carry on [trumpet fanfare]
Carry on [trumpet fanfare]
Carry on-----
